Alkali Makes Soap Bad for Washing Hair

Most soaps and prepared Shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulsified cocoanut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. DRIVER OF WAGON HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Central of Georgia Train Crashes Into Standard Oil Wagon at Crossing.

A Standard Oil wagon and a train collided at the Central of Georgia railway on East Main street late Wed-nesday afternoon, and as a result the wago was wrecked and one of the horses hitched to it was badly hurt. The animal sustained a broken leg and it was necessary to kill it.

The driver of the wagon escaped without injury. A passing automobile had frightened his team on Main street, a short distance from the crossing, and he was holding to the lines although he was not on the seat at the time. In some manner the driver tripped and effl, but endeavored to stop the horses who were not running away, but jogging along. The driver shouted to the watchman at the cross-ing to stop the team, but too late. The collision occurred almost immediately afterward. The watchman is said to have been of the opinion that the driver was on the wagon.

Complaints Against Lawyers Heard-Separate Workhouse for Women-Vice Conditions.

The absolutely imperative and im-mediate demand for a separate workhouse for women prisoners, which for some time past has been advocated and urged by The News, was brought out Thursday morning at the meeting of the grievance committee of the local bar. A number of city and county officials, together with Capt. Kenneth Kern, were present at the meeting and they all voiced their hearty approval for a step to be taken at once against immorality which they stated stalked abroad in Chattanooga and at Fort Oglethorpe, Capt. Kern made the amazing statement that one immoral woman was the cause of thirteen soldiers now being confined to the hospital at the army post. The grievance committee, of which J. Lon Foust is chairman, had met for the purpose of nvestigating accusations that a number of young lawyers were soliciting the business of women who were arrested with soldiers. Those who were requested to come before the committee were John J. Lively, Percy Long, J. H. Daly and Sam Seymour. Capt. Kern stated that these were the only ones cited, but he had mentioned in connection with the same charges a number of other lawyers. number of other lawyers.

No Charges.

No Charges.

The committee met at 10 o'clock and the cases were taken up one at a time, Mr. Lively's being the first called. Capt. Kern stated that when he mentioned the names of the lawyers to the committee before he had be idea there would be any newspano idea there would be any newspa-per notoriety given it, and said he wanted to state from the first that he had mentioned Mr. Lively's name, but that was because Mr. Lively was a criminal lawyer. He stated that he criminal lawyer. He stated that he made no charges against Mr. Lively and had none to make now. He said that he had said that it was reported that Mr. Lively was seen about the jail frequently at night, but that was the only thing he had said about him. He stated that he liked Mr. Lively and could offer nothing against him either as a lawyer or a gentleman.

Details Conditions.

Kern then went into a detail of conditions that exist in Chattanooga and Hamilton county. He said that the only thing he had to say was that his work went for naught when arrested a woman for being with a soldier and then some lawyer bonded her out. He said that it mad gigantic task assigned to him He said that it made the for nothing. "I have known the same woman to be arrested three times in one night, but each time she was arested she was quickly gotten out by a lawyer," said Capt. Kern. He said some of the lawyers he had mentioned did solicit business, but that he knew nothing against Mr. Lively and did not that he had solicited business or otherwise acted unethical. when he was sent for by the griev ance committee his idea was to call a meeting of the bar association and appeal to them from a patriotic stand-point not to make bond for these women.

Gives Lively Clean Bill.
T. Pope Shepherd was the first witness called by Senator W. H. Cummings, who represented Mr. Lively, Gen. Shepherd stated that in all his practice with the criminal court Lively had been one of the fair and cleanest lawyers at the bar. stated that Mr. Lively always con-sulted with either him or Judge Mc Reynolds and had always helped in every way possible to keep down law-

Reynolds and had always helped in every way possible to keep down law-lessness in Hamilton county. He said rather than John Lively doing anything to prevent the carrying out of justice, he had, on the contrary, done all in his power to help the courts transact a rapid business.

Judge S. D. McReyfolds was next called, and he stated that John Lively was one of the fairest and squarest lawyers he had ever seen and that his dealings with the criminal court were unusually satisfactory. "John is always prompt with his cases, has them ready for trial and never asks for an continuance unless he has a mighty good excuse."

had any dealings with any fairer or squarer lawyer than John Lively. Judge Fleming said that on a number of occasions Mr. Lively had assisted him in every way and had taken his advice and counsel on his cases, "The vice situation," said Judge Fleming, in this town is awful, and something ought to be done." At this juncture the committee, Judge McReynolds, Judge Fleming, T. Pope Shepherd, Senator W. H. Cummings and Capt. Kern all joined in a general discu-sion of the vice situation. The rest was that no lawyer will be allowed to ake a woman's bond, either at police station or at the jail, without first consulting Judge McReynolds or Judge Fleming. "If you stop them, Judge Fleming. "If you stop them, Judge McReynolds," said Judge Flem-ing, "I'll stop them at the police sta-

"There are number of other lawyers who are guilty of this sort of business," said Judge Fleming, "and who make practice of making bonds for a living "I know one lawyer in this town who is on $50,000 worth of bonds."

Prevention of Marriages. Capt. Kern stated that 97 per cent. of immoral women were diseased. Another thing discussed was the venting of soldiers from the post mar rying immoral women. Judge Flemng stated that no justice of the pe should marry them and he thought if he requested the Hamilton county ustices of the peace to stop marrying them it would be stopped. said Judge Rossville, Ga., and there are more marriages there than anywhere else in the entire state." Every one at the meeting agreed to use their efforts to break up a practice that was more felt at Strawberry Plains and more dismurderous than the German bullets. | tant points. Doesn't Solicit Business.

After Judge Fleming's testimony, Senator Cummins read letters from Sheriff Bush, Tom Rogers, bookkeeper at the Jail; Charlie Whitcomb, day jailer; Aaron Bellew, night failer; Ed Lawson, former night failer, and Circuit Court Clerk Charles L. Hayes, all of whom gave testimony of the un-justness of the charges against Mr. Lively. The jail officials stated that Mr. Lively not only didn't solicit bust-ness, but, on the contrary, refused business when the prisoner had talked with any other lawyer. Sheriff Bush said that Mr. Lively's reputation was above reproach and he was among the fairest and squarest lawyers practicing in the crim nal courts. The Chat-tanooga Times reporter testified that he was around police headquarters at night and that he had never seen Mr. Lively there unless called by some
